

A two-part workshop for Federal agencies that work with communities to achieve conservation goals: the basics of heritage development—what it is, what it does and how to do it—and a moderated discussion of partnership opportunities for existing Federal programs

Heritage Areas: A Forum on Partnership Strategies and Heritage Development

Friday, July 23, 2004
9am to 4pm

USGS Headquarters: John Wesley Powell Federal Building
Reston, Virginia

Speakers will include:

- Augie Carlino, President and CEO, Rivers of Steel National Heritage Area
- Dan Rice, President and CEO, Ohio and Erie Canal National Heritage Corridor
- Carroll Van West, Director, Tennessee Civil War NHA
- Brenda Barrett, Program Director, National Heritage Areas Program
- Nora Mitchell, Director, NPS Conservation Study Institute
- Bess Gillelan, Director, American Heritage Rivers

Registration by July 12: $50

www.cr.nps.gov/heritageareas/hdi.htm • hdi@mtsu.edu • 615.898.2947

Visit <http://mac.usgs.gov/mac/visitors/> for information about the John Wesley Powell Federal Building

Sponsored by the Heritage Development Institute (HDI), a strategic initiative of the Alliance of National Heritage Areas, in partnership with the Center for Historic Preservation at Middle Tennessee State University and the National Park Service